Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is a sexually explicit cartoon image of two characters from an animated television series. It is classified R18 because it is likely to harm the attitudes and behaviour of children and teenagers who are impressionable and still forming their sexual identities and understanding of sexual behaviour. The classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression affirmed under the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 but is a reasonable restriction in order to prevent likely injury to the public good.
